

BAMA DAYS

August 25th and 26th, 2014

Bama Days is a wonderful time for home church leaders to connect with students in their new campus ministry setting! Invite your pastor, youth director, or a church member to join us for worship, fellowship, and to find out about all the opportunities that Bama UKirk has to offer!

SCHEDULE

Monday, August 25th - 5:30pm

We'll gather for refreshments and fellowship at the Presbyterian student center where you can explore our newly reconfigured space and learn about opportunities in campus ministry. This time will be followed by a student-led worship service in our student center. Afterwards, home church leaders (pastors, youth directors, elders) will take students out to dinner on the town!

Tuesday, August 26th - 9:00am

If your guest chooses to stay overnight, they can join campus minister Rev. James Goodlet for breakfast the next morning to talk about how to continue supporting college students when you are away from home.

-spread the word-

Let your home church know about Bama Days – give this flier to your pastor, youth director, or any member of your church and encourage them to come visit you in Tuscaloosa!

Rev. James Goodlet (jgoodlet@fpctusc.org) will be happy to answer any questions they might have.

-where to stay-

We suggest the following hotels in Tuscaloosa
as lodging options for your guests:

(rates are comparable and all are close to campus)

The Holiday Inn Express – 1120 Veterans Memorial Pkwy.

The Hampton Inn – 600 Harper Lee Drive

Hotel Capstone – 320 Paul W. Bryant Drive

-where to eat-

We will have a list of suggested restaurants available at the Monday night worship service for anyone who might not be familiar with the Tuscaloosa area.

-just too far?-

If no one from your home church is able to make the trip to T-town, we still want you to come! We will connect you with another group so that you can enjoy a free dinner too.

Even if you are out-of-state, we'd love to connect with your home church to update them on campus ministry news!! Check us out online!!!
